

Coordinated through Voluntary Service
National Salute to Veteran Patients Announces

Ms. Cassidy Diana
Country Singer & Songwriter

Atrium
Feb 14th 10:00 A.M.

Cassidy Diana Wetherell, 13 year old singer song writer, writes songs from her heart felt experiences including her life as a military dependent child and the burdens associated with her father's military career involving numerous combat deployments in support of The War On Terrorism.

Cassidy has recently returned from Nashville after recording with the Trace Atkins Band, and performing at the famous Bluebird Café, Commodore Lounge, and the Billy Block Show live.